

As a listener of Satellite Radio I respectfully urge to to reject NAB's petition 04-160. XM radio provides outstanding programming that is simply not available elsewhere. The FCC should not stifle satellite radio's ability to provide me with services that are clearly available for little or no cost by a number of sources, including AM, FM, newspapers, television and cable.